September 7th at 10:00 p.m.

We're all aging – and if we live long enough, most of us will need some help. But who will provide the care we'll need?

Care pulls back the curtain on the poignant and largely hidden world of in-home care. Beautifully shot and deeply moving, the film reveals the intimate bonds that form between home care workers and care consumers—and exposes the cracks in a system that is poorly serving both.

"A powerful tale of dedication... through the eyes of workers and clients caught in our woefully inadequate home health care system."— THE HUFFINGTON POST

"Superb... every frame bursts with pathos and humanity... impossible to watch at a remove."— SCREEN COMMENT

"It was powerful to see my experience on screen. This is the movie you need to see to understand home care."
— ANDREA HARRINGTON, Home Care Worker, Brookhaven, PA

"Everybody needs to see this. There wasn't a dry eye in the house."
— TYHEERA SANDERS, Home Care Worker, Philadelphia, PA
